Instructions

1. Print the pages double-sided on heavy copy paper. (Skip this step if you bought the printed version.)

2. Each single sheet makes one mini book. Cut the sheet in half on the red dotted line.

3. Fold the two sheets in half on the black dotted line. Put the two folded pages together (so page numbers go in order), and staple.
It is Mom and Dad and Liz.

Mom and Dad

It is Dad and Bob in the sun.

Dad is so fun.
Mom is a lot of fun.

Mom and Bess and Matt sit.

It is Mom, Dad, Dan, Pam, and Ben.
Look! Is it a cat? Yes, it is.

Is it a hog? Look at it. It is not a hog.

Is It a Cat?

Is it a dog? No, it is a fox. Look at it.
Look! It is so big. Is it a fox? No!

Is it a bug? Yes! It is a bug. Look at the bug.

Look at it. Is it a bug? No, it is not a bug.

Is it a cat? No! It can not be a cat.
Look, Ann has a pet dog. Do you like him?

Bud has a pet. Look at him.

Meg has a pet. She likes to look at her pet.
Kim has a pet. It is Max.

Pam likes her dog, Bill.

Liz will hug the cat.

Look! The dog can hug a cat.
Ben has a book.

Ben Has a Book

He is on the big books.

Sam has a lot of books.
Dad has a big fat book.
I sit on his lap.

Pam and Dan sit on a book.

Ken sits on the books.

He has a red book.
The boys will not jump. The boys will just rest.

Rex is the best pet! He will stand still and let the girl pet him.

The girl likes to help Pam. The girl lifts Pam.

Boys and Girls
Bill and Meg went fast. They will let the boy go next. The girl wants to help her soft pet.

The girl likes to help Mom. She must put the plant in the jug. The mom helps her boy. She tells him to trust God.
My Cat is Lost

I want her back. I am so sad.

Is Kit sad?

Mom helps me look for my lost pet.

Look. Kit is back. She is back!
Oh, no! My cat, Kit, is lost. She was the best pet.

Dad helps me look for Kit.

She was so fun.

She was so soft.
Jill will give her mom and dad and cat a hug.

Jill likes her soft hat. It will not fall off.

Can Jill jump? Yes! It is so fun, but she is wet.
Jill has a lot of fun.
She will not fall off.

Jill will give her doll a kiss.

Jill will toss the duck to Nick.
He will give it back to her.

Jill will give it to Bill.
He will like it.
Can you spy Dan over there? He has a red book. He can look at it.

Dan will not try to fly. He will try to jump over a log.

Can Dan try it? Yes, you bet he can try.
Dan can fly it. See it up in the sky over there.

His hand is wet, but it will dry.

The ball is red. Dan can toss it over there. Matt can try to get it.

Will Dan cry? No! Can you see? He is OK.
Who can pray? You can. I can. We can all pray.

Who will pray? Ann will. She loves to pray.

Who can pray? May can pray. She prays by her bed.
Zack may pray in the day. He prays in his own way.

Jan and Bell pray. Bell may say it.

Who can pray? Kim can. She stays in her bed.

Who can pray? Matt and Tess can do it.
Jake and Abe make a game. Do you want to play? Apples are fun.

The cute girl can take a bite. It is a big bite. She does not hate it. She loves it. She will put the core on a plate.

Ann wants to give the apple to you. She wants to trade the apple for a hug. Do you want to trade?
Eve and Jill smile and play. “It is time to bake a cake,” says Eve.

These apples are for Jane. They are not mine to take.

Kate gives some apples to her soft cat, Gabe.

Mom gives Blake an apple. He smiles at it. He picks it up and holds it for a long time. He will save it.
God Gave Us the Sun

The sun is from God. He gives all light. He loves us so much!

The sun helps us live. Its light gives life to plants. It helps us see. It makes us glad.

Is the sun up? No, it is not day. It is night. This is the time we go to bed.
The sun has come. It is up. It is day and time to wake up.

God gives us the sun. It shines on the gate and kisses the grass.

I lay the book on my desk. I pray and get in bed.

The sun is not here at this home. But the sun will come when night is done.
Pete planted. Bees buzzed. The toy chugged. The girl skated. The flower smiled. The rocket zoomed!

The rocket zoomed into the sky.

The flower smiled as the bee passed by, humming a song.
Pete planted. He dug and put the seed in the hole. He had fun!

The toy chugged. The boy played with the toy all day.

The bees buzzed for a long time. They went into these homes at the end of the day.

The girl skated on the lake. She lifted up her leg and spun and spun.
There is time for work and for play.

Mom works so much for me. I like to help her too. We wash the dishes. We talk and have a good time.

My work is done. Now I swing into the sky, and I see far. Then I will sit on a big branch and eat my lunch.
I like to have fun, and I like to work. Play is much more fun if you work too!

I like to help Mom and Dad work at our home. Work can be a lot of fun! I like spending time with Mom and Dad.

At times we play games. We tug and run. Now four of us are trying to win.

God likes us to help those who are sad or sick. We stop playing and bring this boy some love and hope now.
Do you see that Emma smiles a lot? You can smile too. How much you smile is up to you!

Emma’s mom gives them a cone. It is melting, so they eat it fast as they sit on the bench in the hot sun.

Can Emma do it? Yes! Jan asks if she can try. Emma says yes! She tells Jan how to do it and smiles at her.
Emma has a picnic. She sits with two kids on the blanket. They eat lunch, and then they eat a big cake. Yum!

Emma is brushing her teeth. She is going to smile a lot today. You will see!

The kids like to help. Emma puts on a smile as she works in the hot sun.

Two kids play with Ann. Ann loves this game. They play five times. Now they must go home. It is getting late.
