

COURSE READING CHALLENGE—HIGH SCHOOL 2

Each high school language arts course has five required books integrated with the course. In addition to the required books, you will also need to choose three other books to read during the course. It is recommended that you have a set amount of time for reading each school day or for each unit. You may read the reviews and summaries for each book on The Good and the Beautiful Book List to help you decide which book to choose.

TWO FICTION BOOKS

*Freckles by Gene Stratton-Porter

*Red Hugh of Ireland by Jeannette Covert Nolan

*The Other Side of the Wall by Mary E. Ropes

The Swiss Family Robinson by Johann D. Wyss

Mary of the Mayflower by Diane Stevenson Stone

Completed

Completed

ONE BIOGRAPHY OR AUTOBIOGRAPHY

Amazing Grace in the Life of William Wilberforce by John Piper

Father Marquette and the Great Rivers by August Derleth (Fictionalized biography)

The Swamp Fox of the Revolution by Stewart H. Holbrook

In Search of the Source by Neil Anderson with Hyatt Moor
(Parents should review this book before having a child read it. See the Book List for details.)

Completed

* These books are available from The Good and the Beautiful Library as a clean language edition.