

By Jenny Phillips and Anthony Klemm
Illustrated by Victoria Skakandi
Layout and design by Phillip Colhouer
© 2020 Jenny Phillips
goodandbeautiful.com

Did you know?

Sloths give birth hanging upside down in a tree.

Did you know?

Bats are the only flying mammals.

Did you know?

Dairy cows can make around seven gallons of milk a day.

Prind these images

Written by Jenny Phillips
Illustrated by Ecaterina Leascenco
Cover design by Phillip Colhouer
© 2020 Jenny Phillips
goodandbeautiful.com

Hello, kangaroo! What can you do?

I can carry my baby in a pouch.

I can hop and jump! This is how high a boy can jump, and this is how high I can jump.

Hello, monkeys swinging around! Do you ever walk on the ground?

Most of us monkeys spend our time in the trees, but we can all walk on the ground.

We eat seeds, fruits, flowers, nuts, and insects.

There are many, many types of monkeys. Here are some of them.

Uh-oh These mammals are mixed up! Are you able to put them back together?

Dear Parents: Using scissors, carefully cut only the animal pages along the dashed lines.

Uh-oh!

These mammals are mixed up!

Are you able to put them back together?

Dear Parents: Using scissors, carefully cut only the animal pages along the dashed lines.

