Blake the Brave

THE GOOD AND THE BEAUTIFUL LIBRARY

By Jenny Phillips

CHAPTER 1

Blake lived in a far-off land. His home was on top of a cliff.

Blake loved his home. He liked to read books by the arch.

He liked to look at the moss
on the stone walls.

He liked to play chess with his dad.

He liked to walk in the big maze by the garden.

It seemed that Blake could not be scared. He held big crabs.

He rode his horse fast up slopes on the shore.

He swung on long green vines

that hung from tall trees.

Blake The Brave

Blake the Brave spends his days doing brave things and being a brave boy. One day he is faced with something he finds he is afraid of, and there is no one nearby to help him. Will Blake find the courage to face his greatest fear?
