SNIEFF

By Jenny Phillips

THE GOOD AND THE BEAUTIFUL LIBRARY

It was a spring day. I was jumping by the big tree.

"Look! It's Gran! It's Gran!"

I love my gran so much.

"Come see," said Gran.

“Look in this big box.”

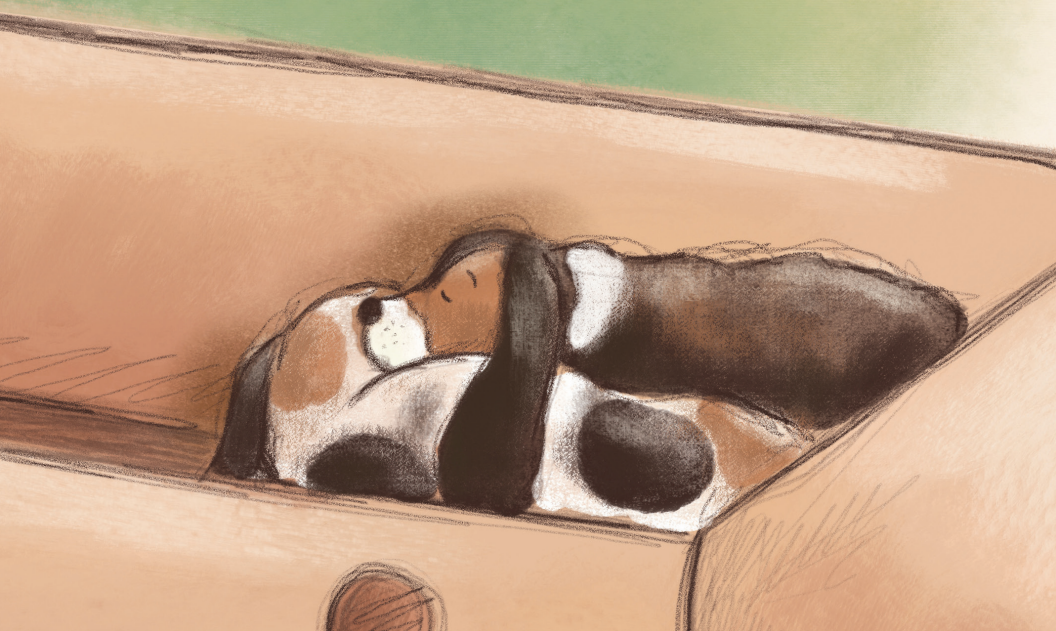

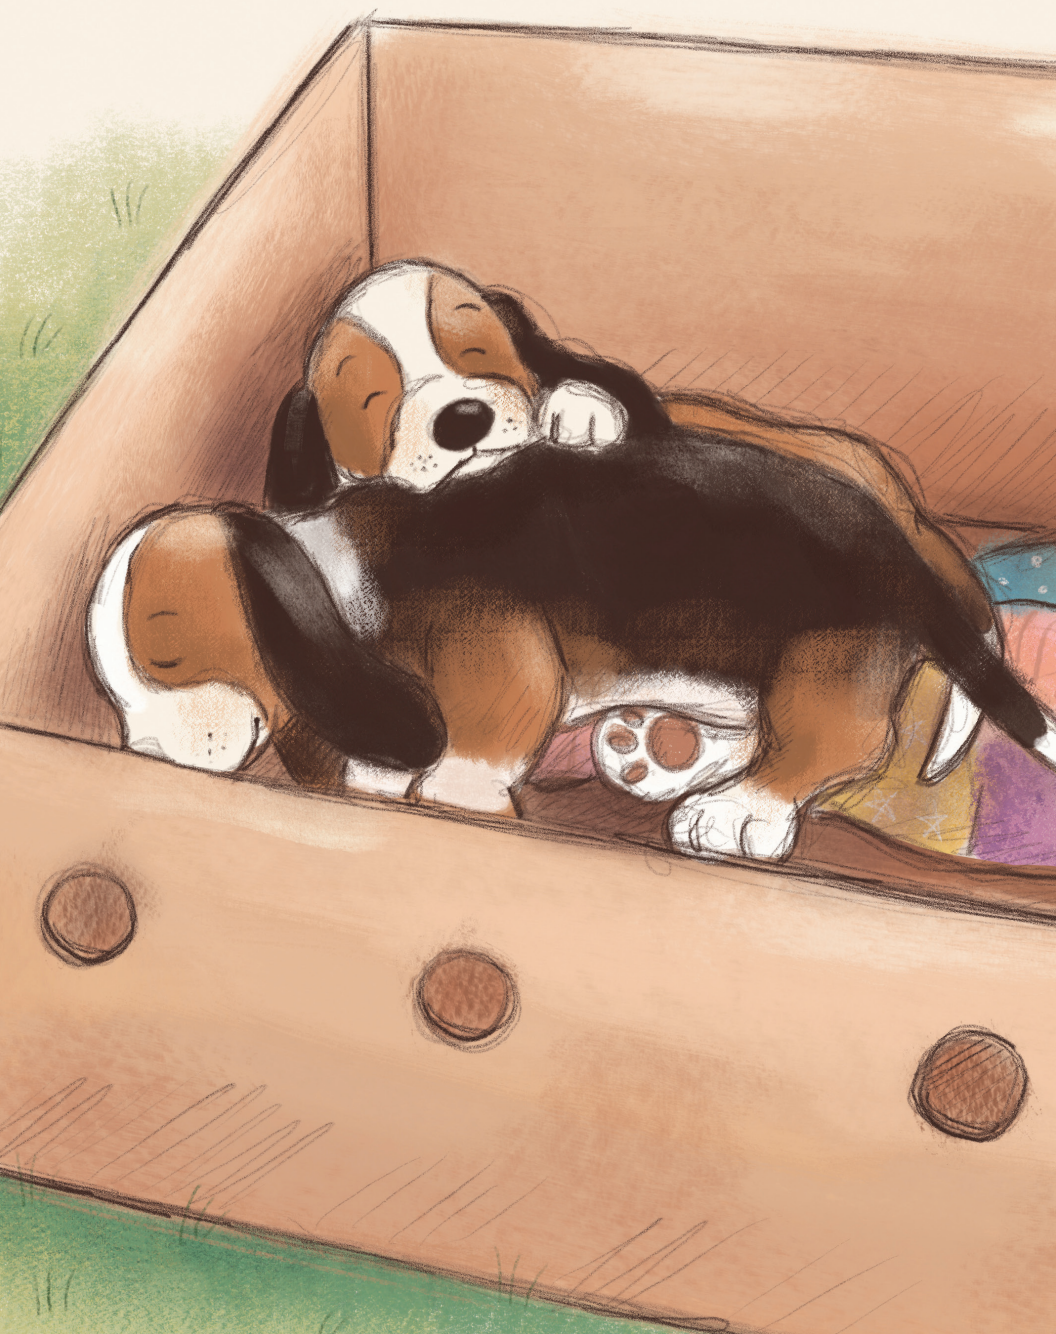

Oh! It was three little pups.

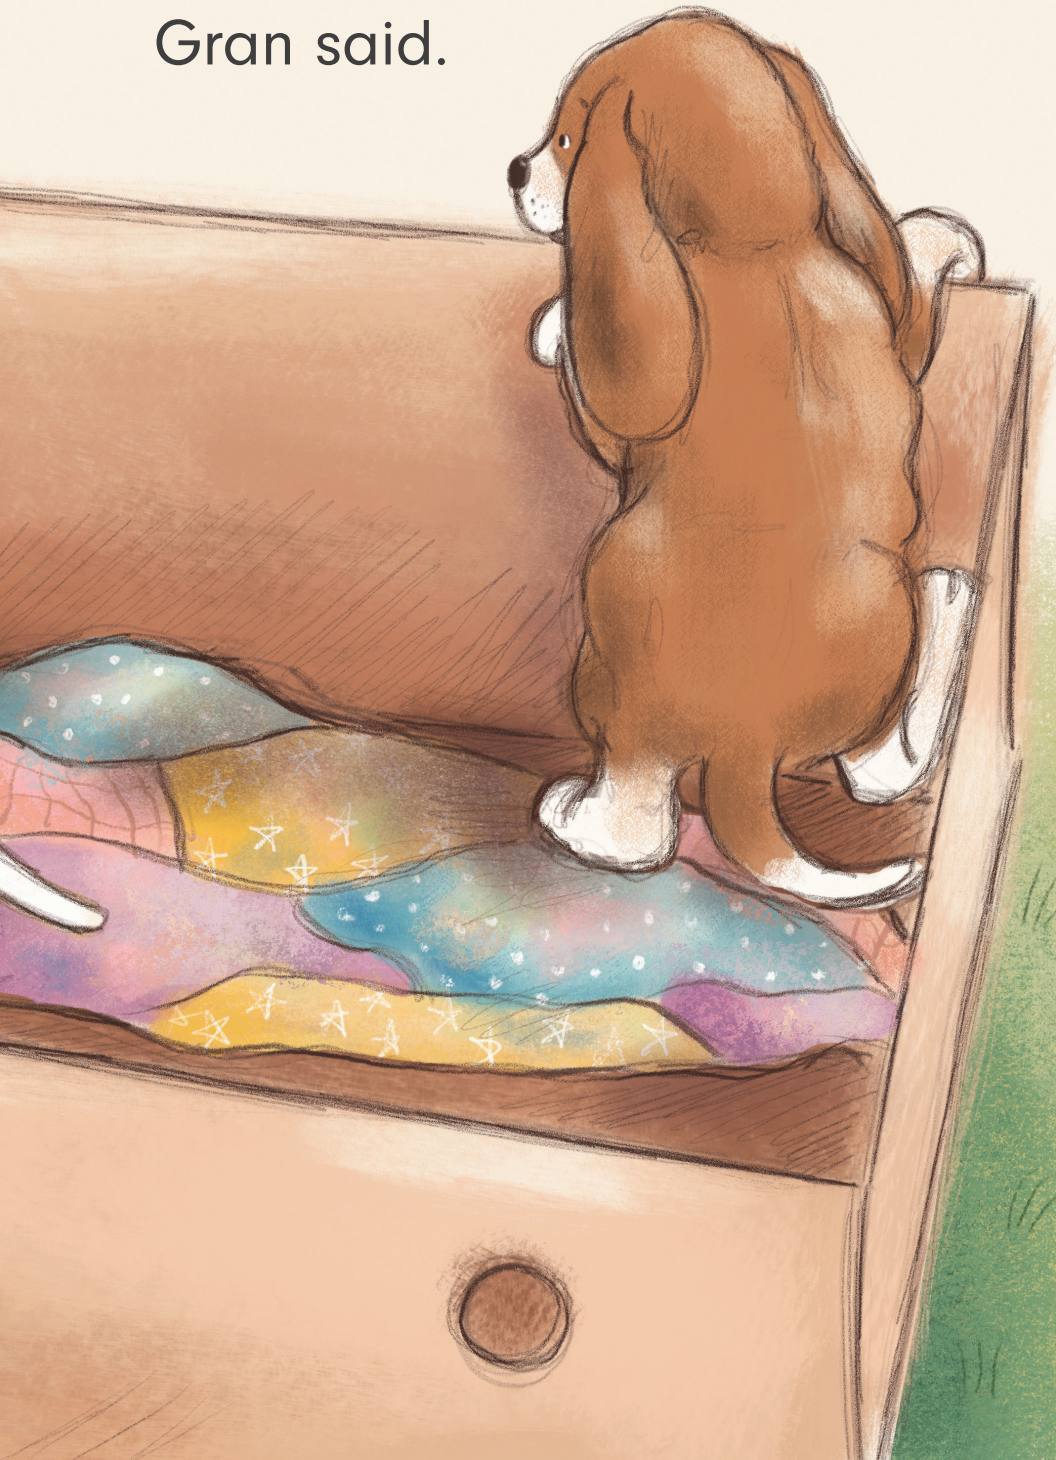

Two pups slept.
One pup jumped.

"My dog had pups,"
Gran said.

"Your mom and dad said
one pup can be your pet."

I was so glad!

• SNIFF •

On a beautiful spring day, Gran shows up with a big surprise—a box of adorable puppies! The girl knows just which puppy she wants, but there’s just one problem—she doesn’t know what to name her new pup! It doesn’t look like a Sally or Bess or seem like a Dash or Scout. Come along on this delightful tale as the young girl takes her new pup on adventures and finally decides on the perfect name.

Sniff is not a pup. She is big.

Mom and Dad say, "Let us go and camp!"

"Can Sniff come?" I ask.

“Yes!” Mom says.

We go past flat land.

We stop at a sand hill.

We jump into the sky.

Oh, it is so much fun!

We go up and up.

It feels so fresh.

SNIFF

Sniff is a very lovable and curious dog. When the family decides to bring her along on their camping adventure, she lets her curiosity run a bit too wild and gets into trouble. Join Sniff as she discovers how helpful family can be in times of need.

THE GOOD AND THE BEAUTIFUL LIBRARY

Sniff is my pal. We stay in when it is hot.

We sled when it is not hot.

We splash when it is wet.

One day Mom says,
"Sniff will have pups
in a few weeks."

I am so glad.

A few weeks pass.

The pups come!

I love them so much!

There are six pups.

One of the pups is so small.

I call him Fred.

SNIFF

Surprise! Sniff is having puppies! The little girl is so excited about the new arrivals but feels sad when it is time to find homes for the sweet pups.

One by one, the puppies are chosen and carried away—all except one. Come along with the girl and her best pal, Sniff, as they search for a home for the littlest puppy.
